

RENEWABLE ENERGY AND ENERGY EFFICIENCY AUTHORITY

International Energy Conservation Code (IECC)
Stakeholder Meeting on 90% Compliance

Reno

Tuesday, January 11, 2011

8:30 am to 12:00 pm

NV Energy, 6100 Neil Road, Room B7, Reno

Las Vegas

Wednesday, January 12, 2011

8:30 am to 12:00 pm

NV Energy, 6226 W Sahara Ave, Room A (4th floor), Las Vegas

Interested parties may participate via telephone conference by calling toll-free:
(888) 636-3807; Access Code: 6652155

The purpose of these meetings is to provide building jurisdiction, building professional and other interested parties an opportunity to work with REEEA to develop the process for meeting 90% compliance to the 2009 IECC by 2017.

AGENDA

1. What does 90% compliance mean for Nevada (brief overview)
  - a. Numbers of buildings, residential and commercial
  - b. Distribution of buildings
  - c. Data collection
2. Facilitated discussion on issues
  - a. Plan review and inspection
  - b. Documentation and certification of compliance
  - c. Time and cost
3. Review of the PNNL defined methodologies for determining compliance.
  - a. Protocol for various methodologies
    - i. First party
    - ii. Second party

- iii. Third party
  - iv. Building department
  - v. Public sector third party
  - vi. Private sector third party
  - vii. Verification and certification
- 4. Facilitated discussion on acceptable approach
    - a. How do you want to participate
    - b. What questions need to be answered
    - c. What our next steps
  - 5. Discussion on timeline for implementation
  - 6. Other issues
  - 7. Adjourn

Please visit <http://renewableenergy.state.nv.us/IECC-Updates.htm> for additional information.